

CASE STUDY – 2025

Sub Project – Delhi-PRJ

Child Name – Ayushi Ranjan

About Her:

Ayushi is a very hardworking, disciplined, and intelligent girl. She always stays focused on her goals and works sincerely to achieve them. She is confident, responsible, and determined to build a successful future. Ayushi believes that dedication and hard work can help a person overcome every challenge in life. She is also very supportive towards her family and always tries to make them proud through her achievements.

About Her Schooling and Higher Education:

Ayushi has always been a bright and sincere student in her studies. She used to score good marks in school and regularly participated in different activities. She always remained disciplined and hardworking in academics. Along with her studies, she prepared herself physically and mentally for her dream career in the police department. She balanced her studies and preparation with full dedication and determination.

Her Journey towards Police Recruitment:

Ayushi always wanted to serve the nation and make her family proud by joining the police force. She worked very hard for the police recruitment examination and physical tests. She followed a strict daily routine and continuously prepared herself for the selection process.

After a lot of hard work and dedication, Ayushi successfully got selected in the police recruitment. Currently, she is undergoing police training. Recently, she came home for a few days on leave from her training and happily shared this good news with her friends and family. Her achievement has brought immense happiness and pride to her family members.

Ayushi says,

"I want to serve the country honestly and make my family proud. All the struggles and hard work are finally giving positive results."

Her Daily Routine:

Ayushi follows a disciplined lifestyle. She wakes up early in the morning and practices physical exercises regularly to stay fit. During her preparation days, she used to manage her studies, fitness training, and household responsibilities together. Even during her training period, she remains fully dedicated and focused on learning new skills and improving herself.

Her Journey in CFCA:

Ayushi joined CFCA as a sponsored child many years ago. CFCA has played a very important role in her life and supported her during her educational journey. Through CFCA programs and activities, she learnt many valuable skills such as discipline, confidence, communication skills, leadership qualities, and teamwork.

She regularly participated in various activities and training sessions organized by CFCA. She also attended skill development classes such as computer learning, English speaking, and personality development programs which helped her become more confident and independent.

About Her Family Situation:

Ayushi belongs to a financially weak family. Her father works hard to support the family, while her mother is a homemaker. Despite financial difficulties, her parents always encouraged her to continue her studies and follow her dreams.

CFCA's support became very helpful for her family because it allowed Ayushi to continue her education and preparation without major obstacles. Her family members are very proud of her achievement and continuously motivate her to move forward in life.

About Her Hardships:

Ayushi faced many difficulties during her journey. Balancing studies, physical preparation, and family responsibilities was not easy for her. However, she never lost hope and continued working hard with determination and confidence. Her positive attitude and dedication helped her overcome every obstacle successfully.
