

Success Story of Aradhna

About Her:

Meera is the mother of a sponsored child, Aradhya. She lives in a Nibi. She is a hardworking, caring, and responsible person who always supports her family in every situation. She believes in hard work and always tries to give a better life to her children and family members. Meera always encourages her children to study well and believes that education and skills are important for a better life.

About Her Family Situation:

There are 4 members in the family. She is a hardworking woman, and her father runs a small vegetable shop for a livelihood. But the income is not enough to support all the family members' living. Meera belongs to a poor family. But she has a good vision and dreams.

Despite facing many difficulties in life, Meera never loses hope. She manages her household responsibilities with dedication and also takes part in community activities and skill development programs to improve her family's future. She is respected in her community for her kind nature and positive attitude.

Her Journey:

Meera is always a curious mind and an innovative woman. In 2017, when Aradhna got sponsored in CFCA/UNBOUND. She also got an opportunity to develop herself with older mothers and staff. Meera's life started changing when she got the opportunity to participate in tailoring training under the NRLM (National Rural Livelihoods Mission) community development program. At first, she had very little knowledge about stitching and tailoring. However, with regular practice, dedication, and guidance from trainers, she learned tailoring skills successfully. After completing the training, Meera started stitching clothes from her home. Slowly, people in the village began appreciating her work and started giving her more tailoring orders. With time, her confidence increased, and tailoring became a regular source of income for her family. Today, Meera is earning through tailoring and contributes to her household expenses. She is now able to support her children's education and help her family financially. Her hard work and determination have made her self-reliant and confident.
